Reopening Schools

The Florida Department of Education (FDOE) is working with our individual private schools across the state to create safe and healthy learning environments for students to return to this fall. The Department has released numerous recommendations for schools including our Reopening Florida's Schools plan. Additionally, on July 6 we provided further guidance to districts and schools in the form of an emergency order, 2020-EO-06: Further Guidance for Closing Achievement Gaps and Creating Safe Spaces for Learning. This Emergency Order provides private schools participating in scholarships the same flexibilities afforded to our traditional public and public charter schools.

Additionally, the Department has created the #COVIDStopsWithMe Toolkit designed to assist Florida's education family in lowering the impact in Florida's education institutions and slowing the spread of COVID-19. It includes guidance and tools to help administrators, educators, and families make decisions, protect their students and staff, and communicate with their communities. For a complete list of these documents and resources, please visit our website. We encourage you to download and share these resources on social media, post in your hallways and classrooms, and share with your communities! As always, we encourage you to adhere to guidance issued by your local Department of Health as well as the Center for Disease Control (CDC).

2020 Presidential Scholars

Established in 1964, the United States Presidential Scholars Program recognizes high school seniors who demonstrate exceptional talent in the visual, literary, performing arts, and career and technical education fields. This year, U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos recognized 161 high school seniors for their outstanding academic achievement, community service, and leadership. Out of these 161 high school seniors, 27 nonpublic school students were named. For a complete list of 2020 U.S. Presidential Scholars please visit, http://www.ed.gov/psp. Eligible applications for next year are due by 5:00 PM C.T., February 25, 2021.

Green Ribbon Schools

Each year the U.S. Department of Education releases a list of Education Green Ribbon Schools who are honored for their innovative efforts. This year, 39 schools, 11 districts, and five postsecondary institutions were honored for demonstrating a commitment to sustainable practices, including reduced environmental impact and costs, improved health and wellness, and environmental and sustainability education.
